Delaware Livestock Exposition

Dear Friends in Agriculture,
Welcome to the second annual Delaware Livestock Exposition. Last year's show was the start of a wonderful tradition in Delaware agriculture. The Delaware Livestock Exposition is a one-of-a-kind opportunity for Delaware's agriculture youth to showcase their talent and excellence. Governor Minner and I are once again proud to be a major sponsor of this opportunity. I would like to thank all of the committee members and volunteers who dedicate their time and energy towards making sure this show is a success.
Good luck to all participants!

Sincerely,
Michael T. Scuse, Secretary of Agriculture

Dear Exhibitors and Supporters:
As President of the Delaware State Fair, I am pleased to offer a warm welcome to our Fairgrounds. I am happy to report that last year's show was very successful with over three hundred and fifty entries, and almost one hundred junior exhibitors from four different states. We are looking forward to great growth at this year's show and expect the numbers to increase even further. The committee has been working hard on some wonderful enhancements to make this event even more special than before. We are excited to offer increased premiums and have added some special awards, thanks to our generous sponsors. The exhibitor dinner social, on Saturday night, will again be a time to enjoy each other's company and enjoy a delicious dinner after a hard day's work. We hope that you'll join us for that. Thank you to all the sponsors, benefit supporters, committee members and exhibitors who have come together to make this event happen. Once again, I would like to take this opportunity to wish you success at the show and look forward to seeing you at the Delaware State Fairgrounds and future Delaware Livestock Expositions.

: Very truly yours,
William J. DiMondi, President
Delaware State Fair, Inc.

Livestock Code of Ethics

The Delaware Livestock Exposition subscribes to the following code of ethics with regard to all livestock shown at the exposition.

International Association of Fairs and Expositions National Code of Show Ring Ethics

Exhibitors of animals at livestock shows shall at all times conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their conduct in this competitive environment shall always reflect the highest standards of honor and dignity to promote the advancement of agricultural education. This code applies to all livestock offered in any event at a livestock show. In addition to the "IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics," fairs and livestock shows may have rules and regulations, which they impose, on the local, county, state, provincial and national levels.

All youth leaders working with junior exhibitors are under an affirmative responsibility to do more than avoid improper conduct or questionable acts. Their moral values must be so certain and positive that those younger and more pliable will be influenced by their fine example. Owners, exhibitors, fitters, trainers and absolutely responsible persons who violate the code of ethics will forfeit premiums, awards and shall be prohibited from future exhibition in accordance with the rules adopted by the respective fairs and livestock shows. Exhibitors who violate this code of ethics demean the integrity of all livestock exhibitors and should be prohibited from competition at all livestock shows in the United State and Canada.

The following is a list of guidelines for all exhibitors and all livestock in competitive events:

1. All exhibitors must present, upon request of fair and livestock show officials, proof of ownership, length of ownership and age of all animals entered. Misrepresentation of ownership, age, or any facts relating thereto is prohibited.
2. Owners, exhibitors, fitters, trainers, or absolutely responsible persons shall provide animal health certificates from licensed veterinarians upon request by livestock show officials.
3. Junior exhibitors are expected to care for and groom their animals while at the livestock show.
4. Animals shall be presented to show events where they will enter the food chain free of violative drug residues. The act of entering an animal in a livestock show is the giving of consent by the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer and /or absolutely responsible person for show management to obtain any specimens of urine, saliva, blood, or other substances from the animal to be used in testing. Animals not entered in an event which culminates with the animal entering the food chain shall not be administered drugs other than in accordance with applicable federal, state and provincial statutes, regulations and rules. Livestock shall not be exhibited if the drugs administered in accordance with federal, state and provincial statutes, regulations and rules affect the animal's performance or appearance at the event. If the laboratory report on the analysis of saliva, urine, blood, or other sample taken from livestock indicates the presence of forbidden drugs or medication, this shall be prima facie evidence such substance has been administered to the animal either internally or externally. It is presumed that the sample of urine, saliva, blood, or other substance tested by the laboratory to which it is sent is the one taken from the animal in question, its integrity is preserved and all procedures of said collection and preservation, transfer to the laboratory and analysis of the sample are correct and accurate and the report received from the laboratory

- pertains to the sample taken from the animal in question and correctly reflects the condition of the animal at the time the sample was taken, with the burden on the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer, or absolutely responsible person to prove otherwise. At any time after an animal arrives on the livestock show premises, all treatments involving the use of drugs and/or medications for the sole purpose of protecting the health of the animal shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian.
5. Any surgical procedure or injection of any foreign substance or drug or the external application of any substance (irritant, counterirritant, or similar substance) which could affect the animals' performance or alter its natural contour, confirmation, or appearance, except external applications of substances to the hoofs or horns or animals which affect appearance only and except for surgical procedures performed by a duly licensed veterinarian for the sole purpose of protecting the health of the animal, is prohibited.
  6. The use of showing and/or handling practices or devices such as striking animals to cause swelling, using electrical contrivance, or other similar practices are not acceptable and are prohibited.
  7. Direct criticism or interference with the judge, fair or livestock show management, or other exhibitors, breed representatives, or show officials before during, or after the competitive event is prohibited. In the furtherance of their official duty, all judges and livestock show management, or other show officials shall be treated with courtesy, cooperation and respect and no person shall direct abusive or threatening conduct toward them.
  8. No owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer, or absolutely responsible person shall conspire with another person or persons to intentionally violate the code of ethics or knowingly contribute or cooperate with another person or persons either by affirmative action or inaction to violate this code of ethics. Violation of this rule shall subject such individual to disciplinary action.
  9. The application of this code of ethics provides for absolute responsibility for an animal's condition by an owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer, or participant whether or not he or she was actually instrumental in or had actual knowledge of the treatment of the animal in contravention of this code of ethics.
  10. The act of entering an animal is the giving of consent by the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer, or absolutely responsible person to have disciplinary action taken by the livestock show for violation of this Code of Show Ring Ethics and any other rules of competition of the fair or livestock show without recourse against the livestock show. The act of entering an animal is the giving of consent that any proceedings or disciplinary action taken by the fair or livestock show may be published with the name or the violator or violators in any publication of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions, including Fairs and Expositions and any special notices to members.
  11. The act of entering an animal in a livestock show is the giving of verification by the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer, or absolutely responsible person that he or she has read the IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics and understands the consequences of and penalties provided for actions prohibited by the code. It is further a consent that any action which contravenes these rules and is also in violation of federal, state, or provincial statutes, regulations, or rules may be released to appropriate law enforcement authorities with jurisdiction over such infractions.

General Rules and Regulations

Read department pages for rules applicable to specific livestock species.

Age: Junior Exhibitors will be for those exhibitors who are 21 years old and under as of January 1 of the current year.

Entry fee: Boer goats, sheep, and swine are $5.00 per head. Cattle entry fee is $10 per head.

Entry Deadline: Entries must be postmarked by September 14, 2006.

Junior exhibitors must show their own animals in the show unless they are exhibiting 2 animals in a class, then another junior exhibitor will be permitted to show the second animal. Without a minimum age limit, junior exhibitors must be physically capable of showing their own animal. Exhibitors too young to control their animals will be dismissed from the ring.

Attire: Junior exhibitors will wear clean, neat, appropriate show attire while showing. Neat, clean jeans or slacks are recommended along with a clean shirt with some type of sleeve. Exhibitors are prohibited from wearing shirts with inappropriate messages and/or logos. NO OPEN-TOED SHOES. Work-type boots are recommended for safety purposes. The judge will deduct for inappropriate show attire as this distracts from the overall appearance of the show. Questions regarding this policy should be directed to the Livestock Committee members.

Arrival and Release Times: Barns will open beginning Friday, October 13 starting at 8:00 a.m. and animals must be in place by 8 a.m., Saturday, October 14. Check in will be open from 5:00pm until 8:00pm on Friday, October 14th and from 6:00am to 8:00am on Saturday, October 15th. Pen space is assigned and may not be changed unless approved by the show committee. Animals are released at the conclusion of Sunday's shows. Animals may not leave the grounds before the conclusion of Sunday's shows or premiums will be forfeited.

Ownership: Animals must have been owned and cared for by exhibitor 30 days prior to the show or by September 14, 2006. The name of the exhibitor must appear, as the owner, on the registration paper. All animals positively must be in show condition or will not be accepted.

Registration Papers: All registered animals must have their original registration papers checked prior showing. Goat entries must also include a copy of all registration papers for sanctioning purposes. Animals must exhibit well-healed tattoos and/or ear notches and be correctly tattooed and notched.

Care will be taken to protect the animals from injury, but the Delaware Livestock Exposition and/or the Delaware State Fair will not in any way hold themselves responsible for accidents, loss and damage by water, fire, theft or otherwise, whatever may be the cause or extent of the damage sustained. All animals are entered at the owner's risk. The Delaware Livestock Exposition will not be liable for damage to any animals, persons, or personal property. Youth exhibitors are to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

If in the opinion of the judge an entry does not merit a premium, then no premium shall be paid. Further he/she is empowered to limit the top award in any class to a second, third, or lower premium if in his opinion the quality of the class so merits. All decisions by the judge are final. The Delaware Livestock Exposition Committee shall have the right to disqualify any exhibitor for infringement of the rules. All decisions made by the Delaware Livestock Exposition Committee are final regarding interpretation of the rules.

Entries: Exhibitors are limited to two animals per class. Substitutions are permitted within the same class provided the animal meets the same requirements. Substitutions must be made no later than check-in. Entry forms may be reproduced.

Bedding: Exhibitors must provide their own bedding and feed/hay. Straw and shavings are acceptable. Automatic hog waterers will not be available.

Beef Tie-Outs: Limited tie-outs will be available on first come first serve basis. You may tie out to trailers; however, you must clean up tie-out area.

Health Requirements: Please read carefully all the health requirements found on the next page, as they apply to all livestock. If there are any questions regarding health requirements, contact the State Veterinarian's Office at (302)698-4500.

The Delaware Livestock Exposition Committee will observe the handling of all animals in and out of the show ring and will have the authority to disqualify any exhibitor for unethical practices. No animal may be muzzled at anytime during the exposition.

Delaware Owned Awards: The top placing Delaware owned animals of each breed division will be eligible for the Delaware Owned Award. If the Supreme Champion in the respective species is Delaware Owned, then it shall too receive the Supreme Delaware Owned Award. If the Supreme is not Delaware Owned, then the Grand Champion of each species should be called to the ring. If any of the Grand Champions are not Delaware Owned, then the Reserve shall be called. If still not Delaware owned, then the highest placing Delaware entries from each class for that breed shall be called to compete.

Camping Accommodations: Camping spots will be available at $25.00 per night.

Directions: Please visit www.delawarestatefair.com for directions to the fairgrounds
